About

Hi there!

My name is Luriel (Lur-ree-elle) and I'm the founder and artist behind Sunday Book Club. After experiencing some career burnout, I wanted to get back to my childhood roots of creating art & having fun hobbies. So I took some time off and just started reading so, so much. I fell in love with love stories from so many amazing authors and that sparked the creativity that I had longed for. So I combined my love for books, tiny art, & crafting, and turned my dream of a bookish small business into a reality.

Every design is hand-drawn and all products are fully manufactured by me in my cozy home studio.

Thank you so much for your interest in my products!

Hugs,
Luriel
